1. (U/AIUO) Action Requested: It is requested that you meet with the members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Defense Intelligence Agency (JCS-DIA) Orientation on Thursday, 16 June 1977, from 1515-1600 hours, or at another time if more convenient for you. The Orientation will run for two days, 15-16 June, in Room 1A07, Headquarters. Your remarks might cover recent developments affecting the role of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in the Intelligence Community, including anticipated new directions under Admiral Turner; the role of Congressional oversight; the new era of "openness"; and areas of cooperation between CIA and the military intelligence services. The audience usually appreciates a discussion period of at least 15 minutes, after a speaker's talk. The class members are cleared for Top Secret material.

2. (U/AIUO) Background: This two-day, semiannual orientation program has been running since 1954. Since 1964, the Director of DIA has run a companion briefing at the Defense Intelligence School for senior officers of CIA, JCS, and others. There are 60 participants in the orientation at CIA, 30 each from JCS and DIA, largely lieutenant colonels and colonels, lieutenant commanders and commanders, and GS-13s and above. Rosters of anticipated attendees are attached.

3. (U/AIUO) Recommendation: It is recommended that you meet with the group, speaking for 20-30 minutes, with the remainder of the time for a discussion session.
